

STEVEN T. SOCK
Civil Trial Lawyer

Mr. Sock obtained his doctorate of law from Stetson University College of Law. Stetson University College of Law is regularly ranked number one in the nation by U.S. News and World Report for its trial advocacy programs. While in law school, Mr. Sock was selected by the Pinellas County Attorney for one of only two paid clerkships within the Pinellas County Attorney's Office.

After graduating law school, Mr. Sock gained extensive experience conducting both bench and jury trials as a prosecutor for the State of Florida with the Hillsborough County State Attorneys Office. From there he moved on to civil litigation, accumulating a broad range of defense tactics from various firms with differing strategies that he now employs in defending the interests of insurers.

Prior to law school, Mr. Sock obtained a Bachelor of Science degree in business from the University of South Florida in Tampa, Florida. Upon graduation, he was hired as a project manager traveling the nation conducting research projects for the petroleum industry. Upon his return to Tampa, Florida, he completed his first career as a business and technology consultant, working for such companies such as IBM, Ernst & Young, Raymond James Financial, Lincare, and Verizon.

Mr. Sock is a member of the Florida Bar, the Hillsborough County Bar Association, and the Clearwater Bar Association. He has acted as a guardian ad litem and has been a volunteer with Legal Eagles homework help for elementary and middle school children. Mr. Sock is also an avid autocross racer with the Sports Car Club of America.