

RANDALL A. WAINORIS
Civil Trial Lawyer

Prior to attending law school, Mr. Wainoris worked for numerous Fortune 500 companies including General Motors, ITT, and Sears Roebuck & Company. Immediately prior to entering Stetson University College of Law, and while attending law school, Mr. Wainoris worked as a Registered Nurse at Lakeland Regional Medical Center on a neurosurgery and head trauma unit. Mr. Wainoris has been able to use this knowledge and experience to provide his clients with superior representation and analysis.

Prior to law school, Mr. Wainoris received his Bachelor of Science in business administration from Villanova University. He earned an Associate Degree in nursing from Hillsborough Community College, and additionally obtained a Masters Degree in business administration from Stetson University.

Mr. Wainoris attended law school at Stetson University College of Law in St. Petersburg, Florida. While attending law school, Mr. Wainoris completed a judicial internship with the Honorable Gasper J. Ficarrotta in the Florida Thirteenth Judicial Circuit and published Changes in Medicare Resulting from the Balanced Budget Act of 1997 and Their Affect on Home Health Care, National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys Quarterly, Volume 13, Number 1, Winter 2000.

In addition to his legal practice, Mr. Wainoris is often called upon to provide seminars and discussions on automobile and casualty litigation; having previously presented at the Florida Liability Claims Conference through the Florida Defense Lawyers Association. Mr. Wainoris has also taught MBA students at Webster University as adjunct professor. Mr. Wainoris, also a licensed Florida Realtor, is married and resides with his wife and three children in Plant City, Florida.